5-INCH SNOW MAKES ROADS "HAZARDOUS"

The first snowfall of 1961 brought hazardous driving, a half dozen or more traffic accidents blamed on bad roads in the area and gave state and borough snow removal crews another night of work.

State Highway maintenance crews said the snow varied from five to six inches throughout the county. The Gettysburg Times' weather station listed the fall here as five inches.

Rain that began about dawn Sunday turned to sleet and then to snow in the early afternoon. The snow continued steadily throughout the day and into the night. Light snow fell at intervals during the night and occasional flurries continued today.

"WINTER WONDERLAND"

With the temperature never going below the 28-degree mark here, the snow was wet and clung to tree limbs, wires and shrubbery, creating a veritable "winter wonderland" for those who were able to enjoy it. Traffic conditions remained hazardous throughout late Sunday afternoon and evening and much of the night.

The first state Highway Department trucks started scattering antiskid material at 3:45 p.m. Sunday and by dusk started plowing snow. The work continued through the night and until noon today. All roads were open but below freezing temperatures made them icy during the night.

The United Telephone Company reported nearly a score of service calls due to wires snapping under the heavy snow. One case of cable trouble cut off service for about 50 patrons in northern Gettysburg for a time Sunday.

BOROUGH WORKMEN BUSY

The Metropolitan Edison Company said it had not received any trouble calls up to noon today.

Town residents arose this morning to find the metered area in the center of town had been cleared of snow during the night by borough workmen who first plowed pavements that had not been shoveled by midnight and then removed the snow from the streets. The work was virtually complete by 8:30 o'clock this morning.

Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner said he will not promise to clear sidewalks of each Treated at Hanover-General Hospital and discharged were: Arthur I. Pennwell, 51, Hanover, identified by police as one of the drivers, who suffered contusions of both knees and laceration of the left ear; Mrs. Doretha Renoll, 21, Hanover, driver of the other car, lacerations of the left knee and elbow; her sister, Geraldine Kagarise, 31, Littlestown R. 2, fracture of the left leg, and Mrs. Renoll's son, Melvin E. Renoll Jr., four, brush burns of the mouth.

He was noticed lying on the sidewalk and the local firemen's ambulance summoned. The ambulance attendants on their arrival called Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, who said death had occurred shortly before of a coronary occlusion.

By FRANK CORMIER
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today sent Congress an $80.9 billion farewell budget calling for a $1.5 billion surplus dependent on the will of Congress, John F. Kennedy and fate.

To finance the projected surplus for the 1962 fiscal year that begins July 1, Eisenhower would increase federal fees and taxes on all those who mail letters, travel in airplanes or use the nation's highways.

Most of his action proposals were reiterations, but the 1,040-page budget book did include these ideas which he formally suggested for the first time:

ASSISTANT PRESIDENT

The possible creation of a high-prestige White House job, perhaps carrying the title first secretary of the government. The post would be filled by a presidential appointee who would outrank Cabinet members and act as a sort

5 BURGLARIES ARE REPORTED OVER WEEKEND

Five burglaries were reported to state police here Sunday.

The officers said burglars broke into the Sanders Brothers Store on Keckler's Hill, Gettysburg R. 3, between 12:30 and 8:45 o'clock Sunday morning, by forcing open a window on the north side of the store. The intruders removed a dozen decks of playing cards, 15 cartons of cigarettes, four cartons of .22 calibre shells and a flashlight. Estimated value of all of the articles was $105.

Also reported to police Sunday was the burglary of three cabins on the Shippensburg-Arendtsville Rd., near the Pine Grove Furnace Rd. The entry was made between January 2 and Sunday, when the thefts were discovered.

MORE PHONE DAMAGE

Police said a large amount of household articles, pots, pans, dishes and a space heater were removed from the cabin of Soria H. Smith, York R. 7. A number of articles were also removed from the cabin of Paul F. Leese, York R. 7, across the road from the Smith cottage, but an inventory of the loss there was not immediately furnished to the officers.

At the cabin of Wiley N. Dressel, York, a quarter of a mile from the other two cabins, only "pots and pans" were taken, police said.

The officers also reported continuation of their investigation into the "plague of telephone thefts," throughout the area. Since January 10 seven pay telephones have been removed from booths. Police said the phones cost about $100 each. It was estimated the thieves gained about $25 from the money boxes in each case. Among recent such burglaries were phones at the Robert Fair service station, near York Springs; the Distelink near New Oxford on the Lincoln Highway; the Mountaineer Drive-In restaurant atop Mt. Newman and two reported Sunday in the Chambersburg area to Chambersburg police. One was stolen Sunday night from the Esso Service Station at Fairfield, local state police said.

Police said the burglars apparently were frightened away when they sought to remove the phone at the Mountaineer Drive-In. A patron sought to use the phone there and it fell apart when he lifted the ear phone. It was then discovered that someone had sought to remove the phone but failed.

Today state police brought charges of theft of a power chain saw against a 17-year-old Fairfield juvenile. Police said the saw was stolen December 5 from the property of Glenn R. Trostle, Gettysburg R. 3.

AT NAEA CONVENTION

Carl A. Baum, advertising manager of The Gettysburg Times, left Sunday for Chicago where he will attend the convention of the National Advertising Executives' Association at the Edgewater Beach Hotel. Thirteen displays of advertisements appearing in The Gettysburg Times during the last year are appearing among 700 such displays from newspapers throughout the nation placed at the hotel for the convention.

Gettysburg B.-L. Selects Officers

Officers were re-elected by the directors of the Gettysburg Building and Loan Association after the annual meeting of shareholders Saturday at the association's Baltimore St. offices. It was announced that 4 per cent interest was distributed on savings for 1960 and that the association's assets, which now total over $834,000, increased by more than $100,000 in the last year.

These officers were elected for the year: President, J. E. Snyder; vice president, Charles S. Black; treasurer, John E. Stahle; secretary, William H. Pensyl, and assistant treasurer and assistant secretary, Clarence E. McClellan. Attorney Eugene Hartman was re-elected as solicitor. Chosen as directors were Glenn Guise, Kenneth W. Johns and Lee M. Hartman.

GOOD FRIDAY'S UNION SERVICE BEING PLANNED

Plans for the annual community Good Friday service and for changes in annual Week of Prayer services next year were made at the January meeting of the Gettysburg Ministerium Sunday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Howard S. Fox, S. Stratton St. The president, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, presided.

The recent Week of Prayer services were discussed and changes decided upon for next year. The series of services will be moved from the first full week of January to another week later in that month and the services will be rotated among the local churches instead of holding the entire series in one church as was done this year.

The January services will no longer be designated as a Week of Prayer but as a preaching mission as many other communities have done. Local pastors will be used as the speakers. Week of Prayer offerings this year, above expenses, went to migrant work.

3-HOUR SERVICE

The three-hour community Good Friday service will be held in Christ Lutheran Church with the Rev. Dr. Robert W. Koons, host pastor. Dr. Harry F. Baughman, president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary here, is being invited to be the speaker. It was decided that the Lenten services held at the YWCA each Wednesday noon, shall be sponsored this year by the Religious Emphasis Committee of the YWCA rather than the minister. Mrs. Lena Parr, St. Paul's AME Zion pastor, is chairman of that committee.

Churches of the town were urged to attend the annual meeting of the Adams County Council of Churches January 26 at the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren.

The ministerium will meet next on February 19 with the Rev. and Mrs. Donald Harper. Refreshments were served after Sunday's meeting by the host and hostess, the Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Coddington.

Mr. Alexander had been in his usual health during the day and Saturday evening when his wife became ill had summoned a physician to care for Mrs. Alexander. Dr. Baughman Replies To Columnist's Attack On Ike

The uncalculated and uncharitable attack on the ownership of President Eisenhower's farm by an irresponsible columnist last week brought a lengthy and direct denial as well as a charge of falsifying the facts from a distinguished theologian and a respected citizen.

So incensed was Dr. Harry F. Baughman, president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, when he read the syndicated column written by Drew Pearson that he penned an immediate denial a copy of which is published in full as follows:

"It is always possible for a skillful columnist to write statements that can be defended as 'the truth,' yet through them actually spread untruth. Because you have done this in your recent syndicated report on 'The Eisenhower Farms,' I am writing to request that you give as wide circulation to this correction of your slanting and invidious as the original article received. I am quite sure that your interest in truthful reporting will impel you to do this. At the same time, I am sending a copy of this letter to The Gettysburg Times, to use as they may wish."

FALSE ON FIGURES

"I start with the financial estimates with which you introduce your report and which convey a false impression. Here you add up the $25,000 pension the government properly pays its ex-Presidents, the $20,543 pension accompanying the proposal to restore five-star general status to Eisenhower, who as Allied commander-in-chief, led the armies to a victory over Hitler, and the $50,000 he will receive tax free for expenses," to arrive at a total of $96,543 annually, as though this were to be his personal emolument. Let it be clear that the $50,000 provided for all ex-Presidents is to pay for offices, secretaries and all expenses persons of this stature will incur, doing the kind of work ex-Presidents will do, and

NEW SCHOOL IS DEDICATED AT BONNEAUVILLE

Bonneauville's new $85,000 six-classroom parochial school was blessed and dedicated Sunday afternoon by the Most Rev. George L. Leech, bishop of Harrisburg, in a ceremony in which priests from throughout the diocese participated.

Solemnly robed in golden vestments and carrying the golden staff which signifies a bishop's position as shepherd of souls, Bishop Leech sang the Latin phrases of the blessing while the responses were chanted by 18 other priests participating.

For the ceremony, a large number of parents of children attending the school and nuns who have taught the youngsters lined the hallway which extends from one end of the new school to the other.

After boys led the procession of priests, monsignori and the bishop as it moved to the north side of the structure where the prayers of blessing were chanted and then Bishop Leech stepped outside the structure into the snow to bless the exterior.

BLESSES EACH ROOM

The procession then moved to the south end of the structure for the blessing of a crucifix which then was placed upon the brick wall of the main lobby of the structure. Each of the classrooms was blessed in turn.

Following the service at the modernistic, fluorescent lighted concrete block and brick school which has been serving 230 students since January 3, the entire assemblage moved to St. Joseph's Catholic Church for solemn benediction.

FR. KRICHTEN SPEAKS

Prior to the benediction Rev. Leo J. Krichten, now of McSherrystown, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Bonneauville, until he suffered a number of heart attacks and was retired, spoke to the members of the parish he had served for several decades.

"When I came to the parish on All Souls Day 1935 there were 400 members in the parish, with about 75 school children. They were going to a small two-classroom public school in a building owned by the parish. We determined then to establish our own parochial school and four years later were able to add two classrooms to the old school house and establish our own parochial school. It cost $35,000 to reconstruct the school and it cost $10,000 to construct a convent for the Sisters of St. Joseph who would be the teachers for the school. That was a great deal of money for our small parish whose total income at the time was about $6,500 a year. But somehow with the grace of God and much assistance from persons outside the parish we accomplished the construction and had only $

CASTRO SEEKS TO WIPE OUT REBEL BANDS

HAVANA (AP)—Between 10,000 and 15,000 militiamen, unleashed by Prime Minister Fidel Castro in a major offensive, have surrounded growing rebel bands operating in the rugged Escambray Mountains of south central Cuba, according to reliable reports.

It could not be determined if the offensive was part of a nationwide drive to fulfill Castro's pledge to wipe out all rebel activity in Cuba this year, or merely a one-shot attack to clean up an area troublesome to Castro since he took power.

One of the hundreds of civilians evacuated from the mountains in Las Villas Province said the militiamen were shelling an area where the rebels were believed concentrated and would move in after the mortar and artillery bombardment.

It was unofficially reported that 70 to 90 persons were seized in Cienfuegos on charges of links with rebel activity. Hundreds of peasants in the area were reported evacuated.

In Havana, the Castro regime continued a crackdown on accused counter-revolutionaries.

Thirty-three men, one of them a North American, were sentenced to prison terms of 9 to 30 years on charges they were involved in various plots against the government.

The North American, identified only as Robert John Gentile, was sentenced to 30 years on charges he plotted to kidnap Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos.

Two American newsmen were arrested and held six hours Sunday. They were Richard Valeriani of The Associated Press and James Wallace of the Wall Street Journal.

Authorities at first told Valeriani and Wallace they would be expelled but later said they could remain in Cuba.

GOP LIKELY TO FAVOR MOST OF JFK'S CHOICES

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republicans are talking softly to President-elect John F. Kennedy's appointees but they are storing a political stick behind the door for possible use against them later.

At least four nominees will get polite threats from Republicans when they go before Senate committees in public hearings this week.

These include Adlai E. Stevenson, twice the Democratic presidential nominee, and Chester Bowles, who headed the 1960 Democratic national platform drafting committee.

WILL APPEAR WEDNESDAY
In an appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Wednesday, Stevenson can expect Republican questioning about what part he may play in the formulation of foreign policy in his new job of ambassador to the United Nations.

Republicans were conditioned in two presidential campaigns to opposition to Stevenson's international policies. If they can win from him some statement that indicates he will have a major voice in future policy decisions, they will chalk him up as a target for future attacks.

Named for undersecretary of state, Bowles seems headed for some grilling about his views on Red China. Most of the Republicans are dead set against anything that might open the way for diplomatic relations with the Peiping government, even in the distant future.

BECOMES A TARGET
Like Stevenson, Bowles can expect to become a GOP target in the new administration.

The Republicans are expected to vote almost solidly for Robert F. Kennedy, the president-elect's brother, as attorney general. Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., has announced he will oppose confirmation because he said Kennedy has no practical experience as a lawyer. But Allott may be somewhat lonesome in his opposition.

The Republicans have little information about J. Edward Day, named for postmaster general, who airs his views before the Senate Postoffice Committee today.

PLEASSED WITH McNAMARA
They are generally pleased with the appointment of Robert S. McNamara as secretary of defense and have no public objections to Luther H. Hodges as secretary of commerce.

Nearly all Republicans are being counted now as supporting Kennedy's nomination of Robert C. Weaver, Negro vice chairman of New York City's Housing and Redevelopment Board, as federal housing administrator.

REDS CAPTURE
KEY LAOS BASE

By ROY ESSOYAN
VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Rebel capture of the key staging base of Ta Vieng dealt a major blow over the weekend to government plans to attack Communist forces to the north.

Soldiers and civilians began digging trenches in Vientiane and Luang Prabang as the new Red offensive posed a threat to both cities.

Premier Boun Oum struck back with the four T6 training planes received from the United States making rocket and machinegun attacks on the pro-Communist forces who drove 1,000 to 1,500 government troops from Ta Vieng Friday. The squadron reported destroying a rebel truck but heavy fog prevented determining other damage.

DENIED EVACUATION

Departure of some security police and troops from Vientiane southward to Savannakhet sparked rumors that the government was planning to evacuate the capital, but most officials denied any such move.

Red China came out in support of Cambodia's proposal for a 14-nation parley to seek an end to the Laotian conflict. Radio Peiping said Foreign Minister Chen Yi had asked Britain and the Soviet Union, co-chairmen of the 1954 Geneva conference on Indochina, to call such a session soon.

Six top Laotian ambassadors were to fly to Luang Prabang today to brief King Savang Vathana

"DISCONTENTMENT"

Discontentment is a weed . . . that strangles pretty flowers . . . discontented people fill . . . this life with dreary showers . . . people seldom satisfied . . . grumble all the time . . . erasing every reason . . . from life's lilt and rhyme . . . many things cause discontentment . . . but I do believe . . . the fault is deep within the hearts . . . of all those who grieve . . . for if a heart is filled with faith . . . it will sing a song . . . counting every blessing . . . no matter what goes wrong . . . so when misfortune hampers you . . . say a silent prayer . . . God will grant you power . . . to temper your care . . . for prayer can "alm the roughest sea . . . for those who are tormented . . . remember you are sure to lose . . . when you are discontented."

OVER HALF OF NATION'S CARS
OFF USED LOTS

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

What is the most dangerous hour of the week for heart attacks? . . . A medical survey found it was 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Maybe because of two much Saturday night celebrating?

Sign outside an air-conditioned restaurant in Tokyo: "It's fleecing inside!"

VEGETABLE MEDICINES

Even vegetables take medicine now . . . A new tranquilizer for plants is said to help them offset the shock and strain caused by heat spells, cold snaps and too much or too little rain.

Science has found that a newborn baby is 77 per cent water. . . . Most veteran fathers we have talked to feel this figure is too low.

Americans buy between 8 and 10 million used cars a year. . . . More than half the automobiles you pass on the highway—or that pass you—have had two or more owners.

CONCEIT . . . GOD'S GIFT

Our quotable notables: "Conceit," said Bruce Barton, "is God's gift to little men."

In colonial America, families usually gave a mourning ring to a preacher for conducting a funeral. . . . A minister could measure his lifetime popularity by the number of such rings he received. . . . Some collected thousands.

Every human being is a crowded strolling universe to lower forms of life. . . . The average person pastures about 10 trillion bacteria on his 19-square feet of skin.

FAVORITE SAYING

Want to present your best girl a really unusual Valentine gift? . . . Send her a mile of pennies. . . . The cost: $220—not including delivery charges. . . . But it'll prove to your sweetie you're one guy with a lot of common cents!

Everybody has a favorite old saying. . . . Here's singer Tommy Hazard's: "Taking the least line of resistance is what makes both men and rivers crooked."

Gem lore: In ancient days the diamond was thought to protect its owner against poisoning . . . and aristocrats wore an emerald on their forehead to cure them of eye disease.

You may believe nature gave you an odd anatomy, but you could be in a lot stranger shape. For example: A shrimp has its heart and stomach in its head, the cuttlefish has three hearts, and crabs have teeth in their stomachs.

Wisecrack of the week: Asked by his wife and three children what he wanted for his birthday, actor Walter Slezak sighed, "A chance to use the telephone."

Great minds at work: A law passed in Vermont in 1803 banned the teaching of grammar in its high schools as a useless subject.

VANDERBILT GEM

Hint to housewives: If your husband complains about helping you with home chores, tell him this—many medical authorities now believe lack of exercise is one of the most important factors in premature aging. . . . Lying on the sofa watching you work will only make him older sooner.

It was millionaire William K. Vanderbilt who observed, "Inherited wealth is a big handicap to happiness. It is as certain death to ambition as cocaine is to morality."

HARRISBURG (AP)—Medical advisers to the legislature's research arm reported today an estimated 5 per cent of the state's mental hospital inmates do not belong there.

The medical advisory panel of the joint state government commission identified the group as nonpsychotic senile patients.

on international proposals to solve the crisis. One envoy said the government is ready to accept international mediation at any time.

any amount not so expended reverts to the government. "Now coming to your statement about 'the Farms.' You speak of a general 'farm area comprising 546 acres,' whose ownership is somewhat fuzzy. You speak of a sign on a swinging gate 'Eisenhower Farms.' You speak of a fork in the road leading to another farm registered in the name of Arthur S. Nevins.

NOT A SHOW PLACE

"Here is the truth about this. There is not, and never has been a sign to distinguish this farm. It does not pretend to be a show place. You can drive for 70 miles in any direction from Gettysburg and see a score of farms that are much more pretentious. It is, by all our standards, a comparatively modest Pennsylvania farm, the home of a typical successful American man. The visitor will look in vain on this road for a swinging gate with a sign 'Eisenhower Farms.'

"Furthermore, there is nothing shady about the ownership of the farm across the road, registered in the name of General Nevins. The truth is that after Mr. Eisenhower became President, a sign appeared in the field across from his gate 'Lots for Sale.' Someone apparently was taking advantage of his position. The President was, in reality, forced to buy that farm in order to protect his own holding and privacy. General Nevins, his manager, acted as his agent in the transaction, so the statement in The Gettysburg Times, of May 18, 1956, is correct. 'General Nevins buys farm for Ike.' There is nothing undercover about this. Everyone in Gettysburg had seen the 'Lots for Sale' signs and must have known the reason behind the purchase.

ANOTHER PART TRUTH

"One more part-truth of your column must have comment. It is that in which you report your conversation with Victor Re, local contractor, state certain disclosures he made to you, and say 'then he became reticent.' This portion of your column is in reality the reason for my writing. You have done injury to a man who is highly esteemed in Gettysburg as an excellent workman and a man of absolute integrity and you have a duty to this man to make public the whole truth about the conversation. 'Vic' Re is well known to me, has been employed by our Seminary, and is, I trust, a friend. I asked him directly whether you had interviewed him. His reply was that someone not known by him had called him by telephone and somehow he received the impression that this person was a business man or farm manager interested in farms, stock, buildings and equipment. He answered several questions before it occurred to him to ask who was calling. When he learned a newspaper man, yourself, was calling, he 'became reticent.' He further stated that for three years reporters have been trying to secure information from him and that he has always refused to discuss his employers' affairs, that if his long distanced caller had identified himself before questioning him he would have refused to reply.

"I have limited myself here to only the matters of which I have first-hand knowledge. Other statements and the persons referred to may have had similar misrepresentation, but I refrain from discussing anything except that which I know. You can publish all of this with full assurance that it is the full truth, responsibly presented and given over the signature of the President of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg."

EX-SAILOR IS FATALLY HURT

Richard A. Proulx, 20, Hanover R. 3, recently discharged from the Navy, was fatally injured Saturday night when a car he was driving left the Moulstown Rd., a mile east of Hanover, and struck a tree. Critically injured was a Navy friend, Joseph R. Woodin, 20, Detroit. The accident was discovered by two New Oxford R. 1 men.

Proulx, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levar Proulx, New Market, N. H., was killed instantly when thrown from the car and the vehicle rolled over him, Penn Twp. police said.

Dr. Donald E. Withers, deputy coroner, said death occurred from a crushed upper part of the body. Woodin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Woodin, Detroit. He is in Hanover Hospital suffering from a crushed chest. His condition was listed as critical.

Police said Woodin was pinned in the car by the front seat, which had to be pried loose to free him. Proulx and Woodin apparently were en route to the home of Richard A. Wherley, Hanover R. 3, Iron Ridge, where they were staying.

Police said the car ran off the road on a slight right curve. The accident was discovered by Bruce Zoeller, 17, and William Thomas, 23, both of New Oxford R. 1.

According to police, Proulx was employed at Hanover Cordage Company. Police said Wherley's brother, Herbert Wherley, Hanover, who is serving in the Navy aboard the destroyer Waldron at Portsmouth Naval Yard, Norfolk, Va., and Woodin had come to Hanover on a weekend leave. Proulx could have served aboard the same destroyer.

AUTOS COLLIDE

A charge of following another vehicle too closely is to be filed by Chambersburg police against Harold Coons, 44, Chambersburg, as the result of a two-car crash in the 900 block of Lincoln Way East Friday at 3:20 p.m. Traveling east, the Coons car crashed into the rear of a car of Carmon F. Crum, 67, Biglerville R. 1, which had halted in a line of traffic. Police quoted Coons as saying he had momentarily taken his eyes off the road.

Tipler, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tipler, York Springs R. 1, has returned to Boston aboard the guided missile heavy cruiser USS Boston following a four-month cruise in the ranean. The Boston, equipped with the Terrier missile, visited Holland, Malta, Sardinia, Italy, Sicily and France.

Ike Asks

should be adjusted promptly to cover any aviation gas tax increase, Eisenhower said.

2. The so-far mild recession would have to stop in its tracks and give way to a gradual recovery that would lift the economy to record levels by the end of the current calendar year.

3. Kennedy would have to restrain his enthusiasm for a variety of new and expanded programs which presumably stand ahead of the new frontier.

WILL SUGGEST CHANGES

The incoming president won't submit a budget of his own this year. But he'll suggest piecemeal changes in Eisenhower's budget.

For the current fiscal year, Eisenhower foresaw revenues of $79,024,000,000 and spending of $78,945,000,000. The projected surplus of $79 million was a long way from the $4.2 billion of black ink which the chief executive predicted a year ago when economic prospects were brighter.

The Kennedy camp is just about convinced that a current-year deficit is inevitable regardless of federal moves between now and June 30. The big question bothering the incoming administration is whether fiscal 1962 may not also show a deficit—and whether some red ink perhaps would be desirable to stimulate the economy.

HIGHER POSTAL RATES

Under the Eisenhower plan, the prospects of achieving a precarious fiscal 1961 surplus hinge on a quick business turnaround and the voting of higher postal rates by April 1.

Eisenhower said his new and final budget was based on the same yardstick as his first—"Using necessity, rather than mere desirability as the test for our expenditures."

Such are the trends of the times that he found it necessary to plan an additional $1.9 billion of spending for fiscal 1962.

Some of the major increases: Defense Department military outlays up $1.4 billion to $42.9 billion. This would help pay for five new Polaris missile submarines, an expanded Minuteman ICBM program, work on a system promising a 15-minute warning of any missile attack, and replacement of part of the military aircraft fleet, much of which is "approaching obsolescence."

NUCLEAR WEAPONS ESCAPE

(Spending by the Atomic Energy Commission is estimated at $2.7 billion, about the same as in fiscal 1961. More money will be spent on production of nuclear weapons and less on purchases of uranium.)

Research and development programs of all kinds, but mostly military, up $770 million to $9.4 billion. Included is $1 billion for basic research.

Foreign aid up $250 million to $3.6 billion. Including requests for 1962 and future years, the total comes to $4 billion. This involves $1.8 billion in military aid. Space exploration up $195 million to $965 million.

Agricultural programs up $165 million, mostly for price supports, to $5.1 billion.

Health, education and welfare activities up $300 million to $4 billion.

SPENDING CUT

The biggest spending cut in fiscal 1962, apart from the one that would result from higher postal rates, was foreseen in interest charges on the national debt. Because rates have dropped and the debt has fallen very slightly, interest costs are estimated at $8.6 billion—down $400 million.

Eisenhower said that by June 30, 1962, the debt should be down to $283.4 billion, compared with the present $290 billion. However, he said Congress once again will have to vote a temporary increase. $2.6 billion, the President estimated in the permanent $285 billion debt.

NEW SCHOOL IS

was very kind that year. He took in our 150 school children and educated them for a year at no cost to us. We rebuilt our school and continued as before. Then in the spring of 1959 the state ordered us to build a new school, for with 220 children our school was too crowded, and out of date.

"I named 12 parish consultants, with Timothy E. Farrell as leader. From the drive and he and his assistants conducted we collected $27,000 in cash, and together with pledges the total was $57,000.

"FUTURE BRIGHT"

"Just as I was going well with the drive I suffered five heart attacks, two nearly fatal, and that stopped my dream of constructing this new building and remaining as your pastor. We owe much to Rev. Fr. Kane who presided at the meetings of the committees during the drive for funds and to Tim Farrell for his work and to A. J. (Gus) Golden of York. Gus was a native of this parish, but then he moved away to Baltimore and later to York. But when we built the first school he gave $10,000 toward it, and when we built this new school he gave another $10,000 and during the years between he has given thousands of dollars to the parish. He always has said 'when you need help, see me' and each time he has contributed most generously. The parish owes him much.

"I would wish that God had seen fit to permit me to continue as your pastor, but it was not to be so. You have been blessed with a fine, hard working priest in Rev. Fr. Louis Forgeng, my successor. If you cooperate with him as you did with me, the future of the parish is bright."

Rev. Fr. Forgeng said: "So far we have paid off about $50,000 on the school and estimate we will have to borrow about $37,000. We should be able to pay that amount off in about five years."

Bishop Leech praised the parish members and Father Krichen and Fr. Forgeng for their work. He told the parishioners, "This is a day the Lord has made for hearts to rejoice, for your beautiful new school is serving you and it is the climax of a long effort on your part. This is a most memorable day because Father Krichen who served you for a quarter century is once again able to be with you, to speak to you. I want to thank Father Krichen for his contribution and the sound Catholic and American doctrine which he spoke."

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, McSherrystown, was celebrant for the benediction. Among other priests participating in the services were: Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph J. Schweich, Harrisburg; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles E. Park, Hanover; Rt. Rev. Msgr. George D. Mulcahy, Mt. Saint Mary's College; Rev. Fr. James LaCroce, secretary to the bishop, Harrisburg; Rev. Fr. Walter H. Shaul, assistant superintendent of schools for the Diocese of Harrisburg; Fr. John McAnulty, Fairfield; Fr. Anthony Kane, Fr. William Sullivan and Fr. Leroy Spisak, all of Gettysburg; Fr. Francis Lahout, Fr. Richard Hartnett and Fr. William R. Lyons, all of McSherrystown; Fr. Thomas F. Lawler, Hanover; Fr. Joseph F. Braubitz, Abbottstown; Fr. John P. Bolen, Conowingo, and Fr. Philip J. Gergen, New Oxford.

limit. A temporary boost to $293 billion expires June 30.

Another tax proposal was as predictable as the rising of the sun: Congress will have to head off the annual threat of an automatic July 1 cut in excise and corporation income taxes. Otherwise, revenues would drop by $2.6 billion, the President estimated.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Death Of The County Treasurer:
Waybright Ziegler, Esq., Treasurer of Adams county, died at his residence in this place, on Friday morning last, of pulmonary consumption, aged 27 years and 27 days. He was the only son of Hon. David Ziegler. To be thus cut off upon the threshold of a useful career—removed from the endearments of a fond wife and young and interesting children, and from parents who doted upon their only offspring—is sad, indeed; but "He doeth all things well."

The remains of the deceased were interred in Evergreen Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, attended to the grave by the Odd Fellows and Red Men, and a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives. Peace to his ashes!

Gettysburg Railroad: The stockholders in the Gettysburg Railroad met in the Station building, on Monday last, and organized by calling H. J. Stahle to the Chair, and appointing W. A. Duncan, Esq., Secretary. The reports of the officers for the past year were read, adopted, and ordered to be published in the papers of the town. The election of officers for the coming year was then gone into, with the following result: President, Capt. Robert McCurdy; Directors, Abraham Kruse, of P., Geo. W. McClellan, Joseph Bailey, J. W. Hendrix, David Wills, David M. Myers, John Gilbert, Frederick Diehl, Josiah Benner, George Thorne, Robert Irwin and John Musselman.

Distressing: Mr. D. W. Robinson and wife left their home, in Fairfield, on Saturday morning last, on a visit to their relatives in this place, having with them their only child, an infant. On arriving at the residence of Mr. John Geiselman (Mrs. R's father), the child, carefully wrapped up to protect it from the cold, was handed out of the vehicle to Mrs. Geiselman, who took it into the house, and on uncovering it, found it dead!

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
The Snow Blockade: The roads throughout the county rendered impassable by snow drifts, are so far as we can learn, again in passable condition. At many points it became necessary to pull down fences and take to the fields. Whilst snow has often fallen to a greater depth in these parts, few storms of the kind will be longer remembered for the trouble they made.

The blockade on the Western Maryland Railroad was so extraordinary as to call for more than a passing notice. The official account states that "the severe wind-storm which prevailed Saturday night and all day Sunday in the Blue Ridge mountains and at other elevated points upon the Western Maryland Railroad so filled the cuts with snow that the trains which left Baltimore at 3:25 p.m. Saturday (Southern Express) and 4 p.m. (Williamsport passenger) became snowed up about midway between Mechanicstown and Blue Ridge Summit."

Sudden Death In Washington: The oldest daughter of Secretary Bayard was found dead in bed on Saturday afternoon, the immediate cause of death being heart disease, from which she had suffered for some time. She assisted at the reception at her father's the evening previous, and was unusually bright and vivacious. It is presumed that undue exertion brought on the fatal attack. When called by a younger sister, she made no reply; the alarm spread, doctors were called, and the family and close friends gathered. Everything possible to revive the vital spark was done, but without effect.

Thirty Soldiers Killed: A dispatch from Galveston reports the wrecking of a train at Valdivia on Wednesday night, by which thirty soldiers, including eleven officers, were killed.

Today's Talk

HEART COURAGE
There is no courage so potent as that of the heart. Time and again it has proved itself. Physical courage is commendable, but often lacks spiritual qualities.
I like that line by William James, "Be not afraid of life." Life is worth living, and your belief will help create the fact.

We must take time to rout our fears and worries and go hunting for beauty; and for friends—and those "without capitulation."

We can always find some beauty along the roadside. Dr. George Washington Carver always saw beauty there. He said we could discover food as well if we had the faith and heart courage to hunt for it. Nature is always peering in on us. We pass her by all too many times. How much she reveals. She is one of our greatest teachers.

I have always loved that line from the Bible commencing, "I will lift up mine eyes..." It is like a spiritual boost of the inward heart. Certainly the psalmist was in a deep mood when he uttered those urgent words. "Unto the hills," he continued, which—it seems to me—means: Trust. Believe. Look to God. Never mind what men may say. You take the word of the prophets. Lift up thine eyes unto the hills!
God has given us vision, eyes with which to see, a mind with which to interpret. No matter what your personal troubles may be, look "to the hills" and get the range. The great things in life often interpret themselves. Look "unto the hills" for heart courage.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Always Be Ready"

Just Folks

WOMAN AND CHILD
There was a woman wise who smiled

With tenderness upon a child,
And oh, thought I, that babe must be
Some day as old and wise as she.

That lovely bit of innocence
Must gain the world's experience,
And come to see the clearer view
What human beings are and do.

Those lovely eyes shall fill with tears,
Those little lips shall fashion sneers;
And in that mind distrust shall rise,
For one must suffer to be wise.

I watched the older woman there
Who had the silver in her hair,
And wondered why it was she smiled
So tenderly upon a child.

Then came the thought; it is that she
Who now has thought to be
Has learned that childhood's happy mirth
Is still the loveliest thing on earth.

Pope Elevates Four To Princely Ranks

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII and members of the College of Cardinals met in secret consistory today to elevate Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis, Mo., and three other prelates to the Roman Catholic Church's princely ranks.

After the cardinals gave their assent to the Pope's nomination of the four prelates, papal messengers went out with the official "biglietti" notifying the four that they had been raised to the College of Cardinals.

Cardinal Ritter received his biglietto at the Pontifical North American College. Two Latin American archbishops elevated today—Jose Humberto Quintero of Caracas, Venezuela, and Luis Concha Cordoba of Bogota, Colombia—were notified at the Pontifical Latin American College.

The fourth new cardinal is Msgr. Giuseppe Ferretto of the Vatican Curia, the secretary of the Pontifical Commission for Latin America.

Take Box Car From Bridge Over Street

HARRISBURG (AP)—Wrecking crews Sunday night removed a railroad box car that had hung precariously from a bridge over a busy Harrisburg street for some seven hours.

The car was one of the three derailed Sunday in a Reading Co. freight bound for Hagerstown, Md. from the railroad's Rutherford Yards. No one was reported hurt. Railroad officials were unable to say what caused the derailment.

When the box car shot over the bridge, it cut communications lines and disrupted telephone service to homes in the area for a time, a Bell Telephone Co. spokesman said. However, service was restored before morning.

Moving Days Almost Over For President Eisenhower

By MARTHA COLE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Any American citizen who has plodded through the topsy-turvy turmoil of moving knows what's been going on at the White House.

Trucks have been coming and going for more than a week carrying away boxes, crates, more boxes, more crates.

It's been a gradual process. But by this afternoon, the personal belongings, except for clothes, of President and Mrs. Eisenhower were expected to be gone from their home of the past eight years. Moving is difficult for any American.

For an American president, it is a gigantic task, almost like moving history.

NEW MINIMUM WAGE ORDER TAKES EFFECT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Some 50,000 women and children employed in Pennsylvania's retail stores are covered by a new state minimum wage order that took effect Sunday.

The explanation of the order by the State Labor and Industry Department follows:

"After Jan. 15, experienced retail employees in communities of 10,000 and over are to be paid a minimum of $1 an hour up to 40 hours a week, and $1.50 an hour for 40 to 48 hours. No women or children will be permitted to work more than 48 hours a week, regardless of the rate of pay. For learners, the basic minimum rate is to be 85 cents an hour, with $1.28 an hour for overtime.

LESSER POPULATED TOWNS

"In communities of less than 10,000, the minimum rate for experienced help is to be 90 cents an hour for the first 42 hours per week, and $1.35 an hour thereafter. The 48-hour week, including overtime, will apply here as well as in larger communities. Learners are to get no less than 80 cents an hour straight time and $1.20 an hour overtime.

"On Jan. 15, 1962—one year from the effective date of the new minimum scale—the smaller communities will raise their temporary minimum rates to the level of the rest of the state."

Dick Hoak Signs With Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League have signed their fifth draft choice, backfield star Dick Hoak of Penn State.

The 5-10, 185-pounder from Jeanette, Pa., came to terms Saturday.

Steel coach Buddy Parker said he wants to use Hoak as an offensive halfback.

Hoak, who alternated at quarterback and halfback for the Nittany Lions last season, also was drafted by the New York Titans of American Football League.

MAKES MINOR CHANGES IN FREE SUB RULE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—College football, as far as the spectator is concerned, will look just the same in 1961 as it did in 1960.

The rule makers of the National Collegiate Athletic Association labored for three days, and at the conclusion of their annual meeting Sunday announced a minor alteration in the always controversial substitution rule.

That, and a toothless condemnation of sideline coaching, were virtually the sole products of prolonged discussion of a myriad of suggestions.

PROPOSAL DEFEATED

"The proposal for unlimited substitution was overwhelmingly defeated," said General Robert R. Neyland of Tennessee, committee chairman, adding that the group had no disposition to return to the two-platoon system.

The alteration in the "wild card" rule of the past season largely is for the benefit of coaches.

Last year a player could enter the game alone between downs as many times as desired without the entry being recorded against him. He was allowed only two recorded a period, however, meaning entering as part of a group.

ENTRY NOT CHARGED

"Under the rule as we have altered it the first player of a group coming on the field is considered a wild card, and the entry is not charged to him," Neyland said. "He must come on enough in advance of the others to make it obvious he is the wild card."

"A coach in doubt as to the eligibility of a player and who wants to send him in with a group can make him the first man on the field, and such an entry is not questioned."

The rules makers deplored sideline coaching and the calling of signals by substitutions, and rewrote the rule to clarify their opinion. The rule has no bite, however, the coaches being left on their honor.

BUSY WEEK FOR DEMOCRATS IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON (AP)—If ever there was a week for Democrats to celebrate, this is it. On Friday, one of their own, John F. Kennedy, will be inaugurated president, ending eight years of Republican federal rule.

And the Democrats mean to celebrate, starting tonight with a reception for one of their venerable leaders, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 79.

The Republicans, however, won't be entirely left out in the cold. The soon-to-be "outs" cut into a week of partying for the new "ins" with a "Transition Ball" tonight in honor of the outgoing Eisenhower administration.

What started out as a modest affair has gotten unexpected response from Republicans.

13-PIECE ORCHESTRA

They hope to muster 15,000 to dance until midnight to a 13-piece orchestra.

Throughout the week, Washington will be on a party kick with scores of dances, receptions, dinners and private celebrations.

Kennedy himself is coming back from Palm Beach Tuesday and will put in an appearance at a party his sister, Jean Kennedy Smith, is giving for the cast of the inaugural gala.

GOVERNOR'S LUNCHEON

The gala is a star-studded evening of entertainment being produced by Frank Sinatra and Kennedy's brother-in-law, actor Peter Lawford. Top talent from Broadway and Hollywood, taking part in the event, will be guests of the Smiths, who have expanded the facilities of their small Georgetown home by setting up a heated tent in their garden.

The governors of 44 states, American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, their wives and military aides will attend a special luncheon in the House Office Building Friday immediately following the swearing-in ceremonies.

Expressed Feeling For Surviving Folks

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A letter expressing deep affection for her family has been found among the personal effects of an airline hostess killed in the collision of two passenger planes over New York City on Dec. 16.

The letter was found among the possessions of 21-year-old Patricia Ann Post, a Trans World Airlines hostess whose parents and two brothers live in nearby Shaler Twp.

The letter, dated last Feb. 16, had never been mailed. Addressed to the family, it said in part:

"Now that I'm away from home, I've found out how much you all really mean to me. I guess I didn't realize at the time, but now when I look back, I must have been pretty miserable to live with at times."

"... I'm surely glad I had you all as my family; I'm awfully lucky. Please take good care of yourselves, and thank you again for everything. I love you all so much. God bless you. ... All my love, Patti."

ASK FOR FLOOD CONTROL FUNDS

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
Associated Press Special Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—A recommendation that $36,222,300 be appropriated for construction of flood control and navigation projects in Pennsylvania was presented to Congress today by President Eisenhower.

The requests, including $15 million for continued work on the Kinzua Dam in northwestern Pennsylvania, are included in Eisenhower's budget for the 12 months beginning July 1.

The Kinzua project, designed to provide flood control, bears a total estimated cost of more than $119 million. The appropriation for Kinzua for the current year—ending June 30—is $4,530,000.

OTHER PROJECTS

Another increase is recommended for the Shenango River Reservoir which would get $7 million in the new year. The current appropriation is $2.2 million.

The Maxwell locks and dam navigation project is also recommended for an increase—from $1.4 million in the current year to $5.5 million in the year beginning July 1.

Funds are recommended for starting two flood control projects—$750,000 for the proposed Curwensville Dam and $400,000 for Turtle Creek.

In addition, $85,000 is included to begin planning the Blanchard dam and reservoir.

Deepening of the Delaware River Channel from Philadelphia to a point below Trenton, N. J., a project that has been continuing for several years, would get another $12 million under the new budget recommendations.

The budget also proposed $2,964,000 for operation and maintenance of completed projects.

PENDING TAX DOLLAR

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is where your federal tax dollar will go, under the fiscal 1962 budget: National security, 57 cents.

Interest on debt, 11 cents.

Veterans, 6 cents.

Agriculture, 6 cents.

Paying off debt, 2 cents.

All other, 18 cents.

And this is where the budget dollar comes from:

Individual income tax, 55 cents.

Excise taxes, 12 cents.

Other receipts, 8 cents.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Your share of President Eisenhower's new spending budget is $436.83.

That's the way the record outlay of $80.9 billion works out when divided by 185.2 million—the estimated population next Jan. 1, midpoint of the 1962 fiscal year.

The total is $3.79 higher for every man, woman and child than the per capita cost of this year's $78.9 billion federal spending.

There will be about 3 million more Americans to share the load a year hence, but the budget total is $2 billion higher.

TWO NEGROES RETURN TO U. OF GEORGIA

By PERRY MULLEN
ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—Two young Negroes returned in peace today to classes at the University of Georgia which suspended them last Wednesday night after campus riots following their admission under a federal court order.

Charlayne A. Hunter, 18, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, first Negroes ever to be admitted to the 175-year-old university, came back in a cold drizzling rain from their homes in Atlanta under another federal order forbidding the university from again suspending or expelling them if disorders again erupt.

There were no resumption of last week's demonstrations.

S-MAN GUARD

Miss Hunter stepped from a white car which had cautiously circled the block several times. She entered her dormitory at 8:02 a.m. Five white men in plain clothes who accompanied her kept a close watch on the area.

The watch disclosed only the normal traffic of any college campus.

Holmes walked into his classroom at 8:45 a.m., accompanied by three white men. He entered a different building from that where Miss Hunter was in class.

Miss Hunter and Holmes were driven to Athens, starting before dawn, by their attorney, Donald L. Hollowell, and the Rev. Samuel W. Williams, president of the Atlanta branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Upon arrival in Athens, they transferred to other cars.

An armed prowler created excitement Sunday night when he appeared at a dormitory and told a guard he was looking for the Negro girl enrolled in the school. Police were told he drew a gun when asked to identify himself, relieved the guard of his gun and fled. The incident occurred about 9:30 p.m.

Mount Trounces Loyola 90-61 For 5th Straight; Host Frostburg Tonight

Leading all the way, the Mt. St. Mary's College dribblers won their fifth straight victory by crushing Loyola at Baltimore 90-61 Saturday evening in a Mason-Dixon Conference game before a packed house.

The victory gives the Mountaineers a 6-0 conference mark at 9-2 record for the season. Loyola is 3-3 in the conference and 3-8 overall.

Jerry Savage, 6-2 Senior, turned in a brilliant performance for the Mount against the Greyhounds and pumped through 22 tallies. Five teammates also hit in double figures with Ed Pfeiffer bagging 16, John O'Reilly and Jack Campbell, 14 each, and Dick Talley and Dave Samuels, 10 each.

PILE UPHEAD

The Mounts jumped out at the start at 9-5 and by half time were on top 41-31.

Outside shooting by Pfeiffer and lay-ups and rebounding by O'Reilly and Samuels shot the Mount ahead 50-41 early in the second half to erase all doubt as to the ultimate outcome.

The Mounts connected on 38 of 74 field goals attempts while the Hounds made only 22 of 65 shots. John Heagney of Loyola was high man for the game with 25 points.

Tonight the Mountaineers take on Frostburg at Emmitsburg and on Wednesday midweek-semi-play by meeting Georgetown University on the Mount floor.

TORONTO ONLY 3 POINTS BACK OF MONTREAL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frank Mahovlich is back on the beam and the Toronto Maple Leafs again are closing in on the pace setting Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League.

After scoring 36 goals in 41 games, Mahovlich was shut out for three straight games. But the league's leading goal producer got No. 37 Sunday night as the Maple Leafs defeated the Boston Bruins 6-4 and moved to within three points of the Canadiens, who settled for a 4-4 tie with the Detroit Red Wings. The two leaders both won Saturday night with the Canadiens downing Boston 4-0 and the Leafs whipping Chicago 4-1.

GAIN 3 POINTS

New York's fifth place Rangers picked up three points in two games, playing a 2-2 tie with Detroit Saturday and then beating Chicago 3-1 Sunday night to run their unbeaten string to four games (two wins and two ties).

Mahovlich got his 37th goal in the first period after the Bruins had taken a 2-0 lead. The Leafs also had to overcome a 3-1 deficit before Bob Nevin got the winner at 14:35 of the final period to break a 4-4 tie.

DESPERATION FLIP

Bob Turner's desperation 50-foot flip shot with 12 seconds to play took a weird bounce into the Detroit net and earned the Canadiens their tie with the Red Wings. Turner's goal bounced about three feet in front of goalie Hank Bassen and hopped over his outstretched glove. Norm Ullman had given Detroit the lead at 17:21 with a disputed goal. The Canadiens claimed Ullman kicked the puck into the net.

The Black Hawks, who last lost to the Rangers on Chicago ice on March 7, 1959, took the lead in the second period on Bobby Hull's 21st goal. But before the period was over Red Sullivan and Don Johns tallied for the Rangers and Andy Hebertson scored late in the final after Chicago goalie Glenn Hall had been withdrawn.

STATE DIVISION LEADERS

JOHNSTOWN (AP)—Indiana leads the western division and Millersville is on top of the eastern division today in the Pennsylvania State Colleges basketball conference.

Indiana has a 5-0 record and 230 rating points, 17 points ahead of second-place Slippery Rock, which has a 3-1 league record. In the east, Millersville 3-0 with 233 rating points. Close behind is Mansfield with a 2-0 mark and 225 points.

SEELEY SETS RECORD BUT BULLETS BOW

Doug Seeley broke the Gettysburg College school record in the 200-yard breaststroke, but the Bullet swimming team was completely outclassed as the Bisons of Bucknell registered a 68-27 win Saturday afternoon in the winner's tanks.

Seeley came home in 2:38.4, four-tenths of a second better than the mark he set in the Bullet pool three days earlier against Delaware. The only other Bullet to capture a first place was Bruce Lahr who won the 440-free-style in 5:36.1 Jack Northrup came in second in both the 100 and 50-yard freestyles. Dave Ulp, Bison junior, was the only double winner of the afternoon as he finished in front of Northrup in both events.

Bill Dearstyne, Bucknell backstroke specialist, set a new pool mark in that event as he crossed the finish in 2:13.4.

Gettysburg, 0-3, will be idle until February 1 when it travels to Carlisle to battle powerful Dickinson.

Halberg Sets Two Mile Indoor Record

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Murray Halberg, who should run in strange surroundings more often, today can claim an indoor world record in the two-mile event.

Halberg found himself in Portland Saturday night about to run on a board track for the first time in his life. He didn't have on his own shoes, his own long spikes being good only outdoors.

So the little New Zealander, who won the 5,000-meter race in the last Olympics, bore down. He won by 80 yards and clipped nearly 12 seconds from the recognized indoor two-mile mark.

The time was 8:34.3 minutes. The recognized mark was 8:46, set by Al Lawrence, an Australian enrolled at Houston University, last year.

AFL SEASON'S LOSSES TOP $3 MILLION

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Inaugural season losses in the American Football League exceeded $3 million, but club owners say their future is bright.

League officials ended their first meeting Friday night with indication they hope to expand to 10 members in 1962 and to 12 in 1963.

The eight clubs voted against any 1961 additions but decided future expansion would require only six votes.

POSSIBLE SWITCH

The only 1961 change indicated is a possible switch of the Los Angeles franchise to San Diego.

Barron Hilton, the Los Angeles owner, is studying such a switch. Hilton was unable to attend the Houston meeting but other owners discussed the matter and indicated they would approve should Hilton submit a formal request for the transfer.

Official and unofficial estimates for seven of the eight clubs revealed losses in excess of $3.2 million during 1960. No estimate was made on the Oakland Raiders.

"Our losses were comparable to others but we would not be here if we were not optimistic," said Wayne Valley, one of the Oakland owners.

Other losses ranged from $170,000 for the Buffalo Bills to an unofficial $900,000 for the Western Division champion Los Angeles Chargers.

K. S. (Bud) Adams Jr., owner of the Houston Oilers, came up with a $780,000 figure that included $220,000 for stadium expansion and $70,000 for the successful court fight over the services of Billy Cannon.

Lamar Hunt, owner of the Dallas Texans, also declined to state his losses but other sources gave a $400,000 estimate.

Bobby Shantz Signs Contract With Bucs

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Southpaw pitcher Bobby Shantz, recently acquired by the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates in a three-for-one swap, has come to terms for the 1961 season.

The 35-year-old Shantz approved his contract Saturday during a telephone conversation from his home in Ambler, Pa., home with Pittsburgh General Manager Joe L. Brown.

The Bucs got Shantz from the American League's new Washington club in a trade for pitcher Bennie Daniels, first baseman R. C. Stevens and infielder Harry Bright.

Shantz spent the 1960 season with the New York Yankees, making 42 appearances and posting a 5-4 mark and a 2.78 earned run average. He was selected by the new Washington club in the special draft for the new American League teams.

WILT HELD TO 24, WARRIORS LOSE GROUND

—Undated NBA Roundup—
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Swede Halbrooks has not been as offensive a dynamo in his rookie year with the Syracuse Nats. But he seems to know his way around the National Basketball Association defensively.

The 7-foot-3 inch rookie from Oregon State used every bit of it Sunday in helping keep down Wilt Chamberlain's 38-points-per-game average as the Nats beat the Philadelphia Warriors 116-113.

The loss was particularly distasteful for the Warriors for they dropped three games behind the Boston Celtics in the race for first place in the Eastern Division. Boston easily disposed of the last-place New York Knicks, 142-124.

Detroit dumped St. Louis, the Western Division leaders, 137-122 and Cincinnati pushed Los Angeles into the Western cellar with a 109-105 victory.

HELD TO 24

Halbrook held Chamberlain to 24 points and had a hand in a 12-0 streak that put the game out of reach at 83-66 in the third period. When the Warriors got to within 115-113 in the last few seconds Dick Barnett caged a free throw to nail down the victory.

Bob Cousy and Tommy Heinsohn sparked a furious first half point spree, marked by a 40-point second period, and the Knicks never had a chance. Heinsohn and Bill Sharman were the big guns in a 23-8 spurt that brought Boston from a 20-13 deficit and put New York back to stay.

Detroit fell behind early, 18-5, trailed 68-64 at halftime then spurred in the second half and St. Louis never caught up. Early in the fourth quarter Gene Shue hit three straight baskets and George Lee and Don Ohl one each that helped ward things up.

HIT 3RD PERIOD

Cincinnati had a hot third period in beating the Lakers. Jack Twyman provided the spark with 11 of his 31 points in the period and Oscar Robertson added much of the playmaking.

Los Angeles' Elgin Baylor led the scorers with 37 points, 25 in the first half, and his rookie teammate Jerry West had 27. Robertson also finished with 27.

College Teams Hit Mid-Year Examination Period With Ohio State, DePaul Unbeaten

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

There's a new Big O in college basketball these days — Ohio State's Buckeyes, who collectively are bent on dominating the game with ability, poise and consistency the way Oscar (Big O) Robertson did at Cincinnati the last three years.

Basketball hits the slack, mid-term exam period today with Ohio State's defending NCAA champions carrying a 12-0 season record, a nation-leading 17-game winning streak, a well-balanced attack led by All-America Jerry Lucas and clear cut ranking as the best team around.

Only Ohio State and unranked DePaul, now 11-0 with a 12-game winning streak, remain unbeaten among the major teams. Coach Ray Meyer's Demons, who passed a severe test by whipping previously unbeaten Louisville 78-70 Saturday, have a series of rugged road games coming up, starting Tuesday at Notre Dame. The Irish have a 22-game home court winning streak.

OTHER TOUGH GAMES

If Notre Dame can't manage it, DePaul has road dates against Indiana, Western Kentucky, Marquette, Providence and St. Bonaventure during the next month.

Ohio State, with Lucas' ailing knee apparently almost recovered, stays within a Big Ten conference schedule the rest of the way—resuming Saturday against Minnesota. The Buckeyes, who got 30 points from Lucas in a 79-45 rout of Northwestern last Saturday, seem to be free of upset trouble until the middle of next month, when they have back-to-back road games at Iowa Feb. 18 and Indiana Feb. 20. Indiana was the only Big Ten team to beat Ohio State last year.

WON NINE STRAIGHT

Iowa, ranked sixth nationally last week, is coming on—having won nine straight for an 11-1 season record. The Hawks have joined Bradley (13-1), St. Bonaventure (13-1) and beaten only Ohio State (10-2), North Carolina (10-2), Duke (13-1), Kansas State (11-2), Louisville (13-1), Southern California (11-2), and Mississippi State (10-3) in the first tier of challengers to the Big O of the Big Ten.

Except for Bradley, Southern Cal and Duke, who take a two-week break during the exam period, each has a chance to improve its credentials during the next week.

Third-ranked St. Bonaventure, which rode Tom Stith's 46 points to an 88-68 rout of Niagara last Saturday, plays Canisius at Buffalo next Saturday. Fourth-ranked Louisville is at Xavier of Ohio Wednesday and home to Dayton in the national TV game Saturday afternoon. St. Johns, 10-2 after losing to St. Joseph's (Pa.) and beating St. Francis (NY) last week, is idle. But Iowa has a pair of Big Ten games—at home against Illinois tonight and at Purdue on Saturday.

PLAY MARYLAND TONIGHT

North Carolina, which has boasted its winning streak to eight since the probationary action of the NCAA last week, is at Maryland tonight and at North Carolina State Wednesday. Kansas State, No. 9, plays Kansas for the Big Eight lead Friday, after running its win string to ten, 69-57 over Oklahoma.

Mississippi State, which slipped previously unbeaten Vanderbilt 74-65 last Saturday, gets a chance to further establish itself as the Southeastern Conference favorite with a pair of home games—Georgia Tech tonight and Mississippi Saturday.

Other major pairings tonight include Michigan at Michigan State, Northwestern at Minnesota, Wake Forest at Clemson, Vanderbilt at Mississippi, Toledo at Ohio U., The Citadel at Furman, Oklahoma State at Kansas, Oklahoma at Colorado, and Texas A&M at Texas.

JIM QUIGLEY GETS NEW JOB AS SECRETARY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Politics was a hobby to start with, then it became a full-time job for James M. Quigley, the first Pennsylvania to get a top post in the incoming national administration.

The suburban Camp Hill resident was named by President-elect John F. Kennedy Sunday to serve as assistant secretary for federal-state relations in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The post will pay $20,000.

Interviewed after his appointment, the 42-year-old former congressman said he thought his assignment was particularly attractive because his department will be in the forefront among agencies charting Kennedy's so-called New Frontiers.

Quigley said he was pleased that Kennedy had assigned him a role in the welfare and education fields.

The Pennsylvania is cut from the same mold as many of the Kennedy appointees.

He is a young liberal Democrat, experienced in government and graduated into public service from the legal profession.

Like Kennedy, Quigley was a Navy combat officer in the Pacific during World War II. He saw action in the Philippine and Okinawa campaigns.

FIRST LOVE IS POLITICS

His main interests are reading, public affairs and his first love, politics. "I had a standard reply years ago when someone would ask me what my hobby was," the balding appointee said. "I'd say politics but in this instance the hobby took preference over all of my other activity."

He added that "when there is any time left over, I spend it with my family."

The Mount Carmel native and his wife have five girls and a boy—Ann, 18; Joan, 16; Claire, 14; James Jr., 11; Mary, 7, and Elizabeth, three months.

LOST RE-ELECTION

Quigley lost out in a bid for re-election to Congress from the state's 19th District last November. He had served a previous two-year term in Washington, lost out in the Eisenhower landslide of 1956, then made a comeback and was re-elected in 1958.

Quigley has a reputation for being a hard worker in anything he undertakes. He is articulate, affable and witty.

His new job will take him into many states to lay the foundation for federal-state cooperation in carrying out goals of the new administration.

GABLE'S LAST FILM WILL BE SEEN IN FEB.

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—John Huston had just put the finishing touches on his two-hour tribute to Clark Gable.

The director had viewed the final version of "The Misfits" and made a few minor changes. Then it was sent to the labs to rush prints for a mass release next month. His work finally behind him, he relaxed over marinated herring and a beer and talked about what turned out to be the most publicized film in recent years.

"I think Clark is great in it," said Huston, a man with a long, weathered face and a gray skull cap of hair. "He liked the part. He thought it was the best he had had in 20 years."

MONROE EXCELLENT

"Our first desire was to get the picture out in time for the Academy Awards because I felt sure he'd be nominated. It would have been nice to have it happen while his memory was still fresh. But the picture would have suffered if we had hurried that much. So next year he can be nominated."

"Marilyn (Monroe) is excellent in it, and Monty Clift is fantastic. Yes, I am very happy with the picture."

Would he work again with Marilyn?

BLEW-UP ONCE
"I don't think there's much I can add to the vast literature about Marilyn," he said evasively. "I can't cure the world's ignorance on this matter. When people talk about her, they are generally talking about themselves. They don't really know her."

About Gable, Huston said: "I had known Clark for a number of years but never very well. I had the impression of him as having a kind of implacability, even a lethargy. I discovered in working with him that this was only a facade."

"Underneath he was very earnest, even eager to please. When ever he had a call, he was always on the set a half-hour early, always ready with his lines. Only once did he ever blow up."

"That was due to a misunder-

Urge Motorists To Hury Applications

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Revenue Department has urged Pennsylvania motorists to act quickly in applying for their new two-year driving licenses.

Secretary Charles M. Dougherty reminded the public over the weekend that old licenses expire at the end of the month. He said applications should be sent to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles by Jan. 26 to insure return of licenses by the expiration date.

He said between 5,000 and 6,000 applications a day are being returned to the senders because they are incomplete. Most common omissions, he said, are the birth date and the adequate fee. The licenses will cost $4 this year because they are being issued for a longer period.

standing about whether he was called for a rehearsal. His wife had to fly from Reno to Los Angeles to see the baby doctor, and he wanted to go with her; he was more excited about having a baby than anything in the world. She went alone, and he found out he wasn't needed on the set after all. He blew sky high.

"The rest of the time, everything went smoothly. We started at 10:30 in the morning because of Marilyn, and he was always there at 10. He worked until 6 but would have stayed later if we needed him. He was in his best shape in years and seemed extremely happy in his marriage. Now he is gone. It's pretty hard to get used to."

REMINISCING TOO

"THE GERSHWIN YEARS" SCORED HIT ON SUNDAY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—If there's a sure-fire recipe for a television variety show, it is a salute to the composer of a lot of songs the nation knows by heart. Then just hire some singing stars to carry the tunes, some dancers to add diversity and string the music along some nostalgic commentary.

That was exactly how producer Leland Hayward handled Sunday night's 90-minute "The Gershwin Years" on CBS. It could hardly fail. Gershwin was a natural—he wrote many, many wonderful familiar songs. There was Ethel Merman belting out one of his show tunes after another. Frank Sinatra strolled on for an occasional romantic song like "A Foggy Day." Julie London handled the blues.

The program studiously avoided the cliché, perhaps too studiously. "Rhapsody in Blue," for instance, was a short piano solo instead of a big orchestral climax. Some decidedly lesser Gershwin like "Tum and Tss Me" received more attention—even though it was in a comedy vein—than they merited.

The program was curiously constructed. The first half of the show was devoted to production numbers of mostly minor Gershwin. Then, for the last 45 minutes, the principals gathered around the piano and literally poured out one great song after another. This was great, and probably half the audience at home was singing right along with the stars. Somewhere along the line, there was a knock-out of a dance from "Porgy and Bess."

If we were short-changed, it was in the appearance of Maurice Chevalier. He appeared in one number, plugged his new autobiography, confessed his age, sang a couple of short songs, and disappeared. Host Richard Rodgers turned up every now and then to reminisce warmly about his fellow composer and describe the period—those popular 1920s which hardly need describing now.

Hospital Is Attacked By Tribesmen

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Baluba warriors attacked a hospital at Luena and severely wounded a Belgian doctor today.

The U.N. command said Congolese also opened fire on Moroccan soldiers of the United Nations stationed in the same Katanga town. The Congolese were reported. Both attacks took place Sunday.

White refugees fleeing from race violence waged by the Lumumbists in Kivu Province have been pouring into a refugee set up by the United Nations at Goma.

The U.N. command today was trying to obtain the release of six American missionaries and their families who were arrested while trying to get out of Kivu.

29 ARE SEIZED
White refugees said the missionaries, their wives and 17 children — 29 persons in all — were seized by Congolese troops while trying to cross the Ruzizi River into the Belgian trust territory of Ruanda-Urundi Saturday.

The Americans reportedly were stopped at the frontier bridge leading to the Ruanda town of Shangungu, put in Congolese army trucks, and driven to Bukavu, the provincial capital controlled by followers of deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba.

(The missionaries apparently are members of the Borean Mission, an interdenominational group with headquarters in St. Louis. Mrs. C. Reuben Lindquist, wife of the Borean president, said in St. Louis the group has 13 adults and 16 children, in the Congo or Ruanda-Urundi.)

IDENTIFY MISSION
In Wheaton, Ill., an official of the Conservative Baptist Foreign Missions Board said a member of his group, Dr. R. H. Bothwell, had arranged for the Borean missionaries to leave Kivu. The only families known to have been in the party, he said, were the Rev. and Mrs. Hurlbert of Wheaton, Ill., and the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Handyside of Webster, N.Y. Others known to be in Kivu, he said, are Dr. Bothwell; the Rev. and Mrs. James Kruettner, who have no permanent U.S. address; the Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Kile of Grenda, Minn.; the Rev. and Mrs. William Battishill of Warren, Mich.; and Ruth Uhlinger of Mentone, Calif.)

TUNIS (AP) — The Algerian rebel government in exile suggested today that the United Nations could help establish conditions for a vote on the future of Algeria.

The rebel leaders said that otherwise they remained ready to open negotiations with France on conditions for self-determination.

WARSAW (AP) — A Warsaw court Friday sentenced to death a former German military policeman for war crimes during the Nazi occupation of Poland. The condemned man, Teodor Eschner, was convicted of murdering three Jews and a child in Ostrow Mazowiecki, near Warsaw.

UNITAS LEADS WEST TO BOWL WIN OVER EAST

By JAMES BACON

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Baltimore's magnificent Johnny Unitas today was the conquering hero for the second straight year after passing and running the West to a 35-31 victory over the East in the 11th annual Pro Bowl.

A Memorial Coliseum crowd of 62,971 sweltering in summer-like weather Sunday, watched Unitas and Philadelphia's Norm Van Brocklin engaged in a savage quarterback duel in the traditional post-season game of National Football League All Stars.

Van Brocklin, who has announced his retirement, almost—but not quite—made his finale from a dozen years in the pro wars a glorious one. He passed for three touchdowns.

DIRECTS 4 TDs

Unitas passed for only one score, but the lanky veteran directed four other touchdown marches.

Unitas was voted the player of the game for the second straight year.

Coach Vince Lombardi of the West and Buck Shaw of the East agreed: The difference in the finely-balanced squads was Unitas' running.

Unitas carried the ball five times for a 10.80 yard average. Each time the runs pulled the West out of a hole and one—a 25-yard sprint in the fourth quarter—set up a touchdown.

The Baltimore bombardier was deadly in the air. One toss to teammate Lenny Moore took the West 66 yards to the one yard line from where Green Bay's Jim Taylor crashed over for the six points.

ONE OF THREE

The touchdown was one of three Taylor picked up for a new Pro Bowl scoring record. Los Angeles' Jon Arnett scampered 20 yards for another West score and Unitas passed to Moore for another touchdown.

But Van Brocklin's aerial bombs were on target, too. Van connected for three touchdowns passes to Tommy McDonald, Pete Retzlaff and Sonny Randle for 46, 43 and 36 yards in that order. The three Van Brocklin tosses tied a record set last year by Unitas.

Cleveland quarterback Milt Plum threw one 61 yards in the air into the waiting arms of Randle, perhaps the prettiest touchdown of the game.

Bobby Walston booted a 22 yard field goal for the East.

PENDER WANTS FULLMER FIGHT AFTER VICTORY

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Paul Pender went into seclusion after making (1) a successful defense of his version of the world middleweight title and (2) a national television challenge of Gene Fullmer, but his manager had some choice words to say.

"He'd cut Fullmer to pieces," said crusty old Johnny Buckley. "I'm positive Fullmer is afraid of him."

From the Fullmer camp in West Jordan, Utah, came a conflicting report.

WON IN 7 POUNDS

Marv Jensen, Fullmer's manager, said his bruising slugger would be "more than happy to fight Pender any place he's not recognized as champion."

He is recognized in Massachusetts, New York and Europe. Fullmer owns the National Boxing Association version of the crown. He is scheduled to defend against Sugar Ray Robinson Feb. 25.

"I want the winner of the Fullmer-Robinson fight," Pender said just after disposing of game young Terry Downes in seven rounds Saturday night. "I want that one real bad, I want to clear up this mess about the title."

FIGHT WAS STOPPED

Fifteen stitches were required to repair the damage Pender wrought on Downes' face. The fight was stopped with the 24-year-old Londoner bleeding profusely from a long, deep gash over the bridge of the nose. That took 12 stitches, and 3 more closed up an eye cut.

"Sharp, he was," Downes admitted before leaving for Baltimore.

Pender was ahead on all cards. He used a picture left to redder Terry's face as early as the first round, threw some surprising right hands and was in complete control of the fight except for the third round when Downes' broke through the stabbing left for a two-handed assault to the body.

Pender scored a knockdown with a right hand in the first round and in other rounds abandoned his usual cautious, defensive style to mix it up.

Governor Will Ask For Boost In Gasoline Tax

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's lawmakers, back from a week's recess, will get a look today at the Lawrence Administration's spending proposals for the 1961-62 fiscal period.

It was learned from administration sources the budget will total nearly $1 billion for general fund operations.

Gov. Lawrence scheduled a budget briefing session with legislative leaders for early in the day and an address later before a joint session of the Senate and House.

The administration took pains to keep its fiscal proposals as closely guarded secret until Lawrence had an opportunity to outline them in detail before the lawmakers. However, there was general agreement among speculative reports about what his budget message would contain.

HIKE IN GAS TAX

The financial outlay was expected to call for an increase of two cents in the state's five-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax.

The administration was reported ready to ask for a step-up in collection of taxes on business and industry and for increased funds to combat unemployment and to carry out urban redevelopment programs.

The gasoline tax increase would have to be included in the special or motor fund budget which will be sent to the legislature along with the general fund spending requests.

The general fund pays all orinary expenses of state government. Highway construction and maintenance are financed by the motor fund.

KEEP SALES TAX

The administration also was reported to have decided against any increase or expansion of the state's 4 per cent sales tax, chief revenue raiser in the fiscal picture.

A proposed one-cent boost in the gasoline tax ran into a roadblock in the 1959 legislature and eventually fell by the wayside.

Highways Secretary Park H. Martin, in calling for a speed-up in the state's road building program, has stressed his department's need for more money to do the job and keep up with maintenance responsibilities.

Acceleration of tax collections from business and industry would be carried out by permitting advance payments by those taxed.

Two business taxes have been collected under partial acceleration since 1957. They are the corporate net income tax, which in that year was accelerated by 50 per cent, and the capital stocks tax, which was advanced by 80 per cent.

Eighty per cent generally is considered by government fiscal experts to be the highest acceleration which can be applied successfully.
